To Visit Flagstaff.

Phoenix, Aug. 18, 1898.

Pease say to the people of Flagstaff when you have the opportunity that just as soon as I can find time I shall visit Flagstaff, with the other members of the Board of Control, and arrange for some work at least to be done on the Reform School building, and consult with the people of that community as to the best way to make the building available and beneficial.

Yours very truly,

N. O. MURPHY, Governor.

The secretary of the Republican Territorial Central Committee announces that it is impracticable to hold the Republican convention in Flagstaff, and calls a meeting of the committee at Phoenix, Arizona on August 30, to determine the time and place of holding the convention.

District Court.

The Smoot case was given to the jury at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon and on Sunday at 7:30 p. m. they returned into court, and stated that it was impossible for them to agree upon a verdict. The jury were discharged and the case was set for rehearing on Friday August, 19th. A special venire of forty trial jurors was ordered issued returnable on that day. The following jurors were chosen to try the case: J. A. Van Deren, Frank L. Beal, William Friedlein, August Meyer, A. T. Roach, Frank Browning, Fred Kendrick, W. V. Cartmell, V. A. Powell, A. A. Fisher, George Morris, George Martini.

John Drain, who was acquitted on the charge of murder, because the jury found that he was insane when he committed the deed, and was held in the county jail pending a special investigation of his sanity, was discharged from custody.

The prisoners sentenced during the term of court were as follows: Juan Montoya, for forgery, for five years, Aurelo Montoya, for assault with attempt to commit murder, for two years. Frank Delaney was sentenced for life for murder, and Big Hat Charley's son, a Navajo Indian, was sentenced for five years for assault with attempt to commit rape, were taken to the Yuma prison on Sunday, by Deputy Sheriff C. A. Bush, M. T. Black and J. M. Simpson.

On Wednesday last a visitor, slightly under the influence of too much "sheep herder's delight," was thrown from a fractious broncho in front of the SUN office. A number of men ran quickly to his assistance and held the plunging animal until he could regain his feet and seat himself in the saddle. When he started he took everything but the partly emptied bottle which had fallen from his pocket in the road.
